1 Net Worth (cash + loans (+ LTI) − deferred incomes): January 1, 1996 - December 30, 2005

2 Conferences

- 2004 IEEE International Symposium on Information Theory, Chicago, USA:
The surplus was of $86,907.15 on a revenue of $401,913.46. The books are closed.

- 2004 IEEE Information Theory Workshop, San Antonio, USA:
The conference closed with a surplus of $6,244.59.
• 2005 IEEE International Symposium on Information Theory, Adelaide, Australia:
  Loan of $15 K.

• 2005 IEEE Information Theory Workshop, New Zealand:
  Loan repaid. Expected surplus of $8,600, sent in to IEEE $36,216.

• 2005 IEEE Information Theory Workshop, Japan:
  Expected surplus of $8,254.

• 2006 IEEE International Symposium on Information Theory, Seattle, USA:
  Loan of $15K.

• 2006 IEEE Information Theory Workshop, Uruguay:
  Loan of $5K. Good expected surplus.

• 2006 IEEE Information Theory Workshop, China:
  Loan of $10K.

• 2007 IEEE International Symposium on Information Theory, Nice, France:
  Loan of $10K.

• 2007 IEEE Information Theory Workshop, Norway:
  Budget progressing in a satisfactory manner.

• 2008 IEEE International Symposium on Information Theory, Canada:
  Budget progressing in a satisfactory manner.

• 2008 IEEE Information Theory Workshop, Portugal:
  Budget progressing in a satisfactory manner.

• 2009 IEEE International Symposium on Information Theory, Korea:
  Budget progressing in a satisfactory manner.